

Davis Flight Support/Woodland Aviation

Davis Flight Support is a full service premium FBO located at Yolo County Airport (KDWA) six miles outside of Davis, California supporting general aviation and corporate jet traffic in the greater Sacramento area and is taking applications for Line Service Personnel.

Job Summary:

Fuel and movement of general and corporate aircraft including over wing and single point fuel methods. Perform a variety of duties related to general servicing of aircraft, passengers, and baggage and cargo. Duties include greeting, parking, towing and marshaling aircraft and ground transportation arriving or departing the ramp area. Provide oil, oxygen and lavatory service as requested. Assist flight crews as requested. Keep facility, crew cars, and equipment clean and ready for use.

.....If you are interested.....

in a challenging position with benefits that include health care, dental, vacation, competitive wages, paid holiday and much more.....then send your resume to jobs@davisflightsupport.com